Recently, I attended a TedX where a number of experts presented who were all so inspirational to those of us in attendance. However, the passion and professional manner in which Manali spoke was another level entirely. Imparting wisdom and knowledge is truly an art and Manali made it clear that she is a master. Interestingly she would probably be the first one to say that perfecting ones art is really the ultimate challenge. With that in mind, one can only imagine where her art will take her and those she works with. I am so thankful to have been a part of that and for one small part of a day, I joined Manali on her journey.

Manali Scott, is a remarkable woman - not only has she assisted me in my healing journey but she has brought her teachings and ways of life - into the lives of many. I have seen incredible transformations - those who have attended her workshops, to yoga classes and one on one healing programs. Manali has spoken as a TEDx speaker and has inspired many. If you have not had the opportunity to work with or get to know Manali. I highly recommend you do.
